

B R I D G E S

- 4 Senate Appropriations Committee moves to restore funding for international broadcasting
Simonas Girdzijauskas
of The Joint Baltic-American National Committee, Inc.
Radio Free Europe and Voice of America are finally out of danger.
- 5 Meetings with 2004 presidential candidates begin with Sen. Lieberman
Nicole Shahenian
What can the presidential candidates have in mind for the Baltics?
- 6 Welcome and congratulations, Estonia! — European Commission
ELTA Lithuanian News Agency
Estonia votes "Yes!" to the European Union.
- 7 A piece of U.S.-Baltic history to be auctioned
Karina Kolbrún Donnelly
The Senate roll call vote on NATO enlargement is up for auction.
- 8 European Basketball Champions? Lithuania, of course!
From the media
Watch out, America. Lithuania is your top contender!
- 9 The Jonas Kronkaitis Story
Edvardas Baranauskas
The Major General, Commander of Lithuania's Armed Forces is highlighted.
- 13 A Life Blessed...
Jeanne Dorr
Sister Nijolė Sadunaitė reminisces.
- 17 Temporary Children's Home in Vilnius — An update
Ina Bertulyte-Bray
Can we really see the results of our actions? Without a doubt.
- 19 An appeal for the faithful in Lithuania
Father John Rikteraitis
An appeal for a breviary for Lithuania's priests
- DEPARTMENTS. . .
2 PERSPECTIVES
20 CURRENT EVENTS

An Educational Web Site to Visit...

On September 29th, 1996, the first site on the Internet for Lithuanian schools and gymnasiums was created. In 1998, it was called 'Tinklas', www.tinklas.lt.

Tinklas features...

- one of the most successful and longest educational projects in Lithuania;
- the biggest, constantly updated date base of Lithuanian schools and gymnasiums;
- yearly organizes a competition in Internet 'Web pages of Lithuanian Schools';
- a lot of web pages for teaching and self-studying, syllabi, etc;
- topics of today, discussions, surveys, and medical web pages;
- information for primary school pupils, their parents, teachers;
- And pages for leisure and entertainment.

On the cover:
This illustration was included in the 1947 edition of the children's booklet, Tevu Name-liai — Our Parents Homes, written by Vyte Nemunelis and illustrated by J. Firinauskas.