from the editor

Dear readers,

The month of June is so beautiful with its forests, parks, and meadows brimming with LIFE. And yet, for many years this month has been marked of remembrance of horrible events of 1940 and 1941 that drowned Lithuania in DEATH. The statistics below taken from the Genocide and Resistance Research Centre of Lithuania shows the extent of the losses Lithuania suffered. I encourage everyone who visits Lithuania go to the Genocide Museum in Vilnius. I also encourage everyone to collect the stories of your family members if they were touched by the mass deportation to Siberia. These stories should be recorded so that future generations would never forget.

Sincerely,

Karilė Vaitkutė
Editor
